Presentation / Study programme
Orthopaedic manipulative physiotherapy (OMT) is a specialised branch of physical therapy dedicated to the treatment of neuromusculoskeletal conditions based on clinical reasoning and using highly specific treatment approaches including manual techniques and therapy exercises. OMT is based on the scientific and clinical evidence, as well as on each patient's biological, psychological and social characteristics (IFOMPT, 2004).
Objective
This is a two-year training programme run in collaboration with the University of Ghent, leading to a University Certificate in Manual Therapy. The certificate meets the requirements of the ministerial order of 22 April 2014, defining the accreditation criteria authorising physiotherapists to acquire the professional qualification of manual therapist (training programme worth 75 ECTS after obtaining the title of physiotherapist). The certificate granted meets the requirements of the "International Federation of Orthopaedic Manipulative Physical Therapists (IFOMPT)", allowing holders to obtain international recognition. This training is internationally recognised after having been audited and accredited by the International Federation of Orthopaedic Manipulative Physical Therapists (IFOMPT - http://www.ifompt.org/) which is a branch of the `World Confederation for Physical Therapy¿.
Special conditions of access / students concerned
This programme is aimed at :
- holders of a degree in physiotherapy ("Licence" or "Master") or in medicine awarded by a Belgian institution of higher learning (university or higher school)
- holders of a Belgian diploma ("Graduat") awarded by an institution of higher learning at the end of a short programme regulated by previous legislation. In this case, the candidates are required to apply for the recognition of their experience of minimum 2 years by the professors in charge of the programme.
- holders of a similar degree in physiotherapy earned outside of Belgium. In this case, the candidates are required to apply with the professors in charge of the programme.
Number of students : 18 minimum (36 maximum)
Prerequisites :
- Compulsory prerequisites (in anatomy, physiology, biomechanics, biostatitics) will be required of all participants. These conditions are necessary to meet the requirements of the IFOMPT.
Duration of the training
The certificate programme takes place over a cycle of 2 years (over 2 blocks). New registrations in 2017-2018.
2 blocks (75 ECTS : Block 1 - 33 ECTS and Block 2 - 42 ECTS) including 480H of face-to-face teaching, 160H of supervised clinical practice, 1310H of student personal work and 300H for the preparation for the final dissertation.
Note : The programme cannot be split.
Calendar
Start date(s): New cycle in September 2015
Planned schedule : in order to allow applicants to continue their professional activities, the training programme is comprised of 30 days of training every year, in the form of seminars lasting two or three days, which are organised approximately every three weeks.
These seminars may take place from Thursday 17:00 to Sunday 17:30. As regards the placement, 34 hours will be integrated into the training seminars, and the remaining 46 hours will be completed according to the training supervisors¿ availability.
Training language
French (75%) - English (25%)
