

Two-Year Master Program (120 ECTS)

Access conditions to the Master (http://www.ulg.ac.be/cms/c_45758/master-en-droit)

Programme organization

With the exception of the "Interuniversity Mobility" and "Management" outcome programmes, students will choose their final outcome in the 2nd year of the Masters programme.

Languages

During each year of Master, students must choose a course in a foreign language from the compulsory courses list (one course in European law is indeed available in English) or from optional / focus courses list.

Students registered at the inter-university focus are exempted from this obligation during the year of their trip if they go one semester, and during two years if they go one year. Courses chosen in host university must be given in a language other than french.

Specialised approach Masters, whose final orientation will be decided in the 2nd year of the Masters

Student may ask to share the master's compulsory courses out between the two years. Nevertheless, they have to pay attention to the consequences of this planning with regard to the choice of the focus.

First Year

The even or odd nature of the academic year is determined by the beginning of the year (example : the academic year 2011-2012 is an odd year).

Professional focus in Interuniversity mobility

Students selected for this focus (selection organized at the beginning of the 3rd year of Bachelor) will study in a foreign university or in a university of the Flemish-speaking community according to the terms laid out by the Faculty. This stay can last one academic year (choose 58 ECTS from the host university programme) or one semester (choose 30 ECTS from the host university programme), only during the first year of Master. See details on the Faculty's website ("International/Mobility" section).

Master professional focus in management

Prior agreement from the Faculty is required before this specialisation can be selected.

This speciality enables access to the Masters in Management Sciences specialising in law and management. In one year of study (75 credits), students can thus acquire the diploma in Management Sciences.

Master professional focus in Law and Management

"The specialisation in ""Law and Management"" results from partnership between the Faculty of Law and Political Science - Ecole Liègeoise de Criminologie Jean Constant and the HEC-Management School at the University of Liège.

It was created within the Masters in Law programme for holders of the Masters in Management Sciences degree specialising in Law and in parallel within the Masters in Management Sciences for holders of the Masters in Law degree specialising in Management.

This specialisation is the final stage in a programme enabling students to obtain two Masters degrees (law and management) over six years. "
