

Block 1

Information

Professor Alexandre GHUYSEN

Rehabilitation - extra-hospital emergencies

CHU - Building B35 - Quartier Hôpital

Avenue de l'Hôpital 1 - 4000 Liege

Phone: 04/366.77.22

e-mail: A.Ghuysen@uliege.be

Conditions and pre-requisites

The training is aimed at the following public:

- Doctor (BMA, SMA, SAMU, TPPSU)

- Doctor working in an A&E department

- Nurse with an SISU or SIAMU qualification or working in an A&E department (assimilated)

- All other requests will be examined by the jury before acceptance

Admission is based on an application file submitted to ULB

Courses programme

MCER2134-1 Interuniversity certificate in multi-disciplinary management of unusual situations - COLLÉGIALITÉ TA - - - 10

1. Theory classes (54 hours)

- 4 days of multidisciplinary theoretical training - D1 to D4

- 2 days of specific theoretical training for doctors and nurses (optional for the other fields) - D5 and D6.

2. Practical exercises (18 h)

- Two days of practical exercises - D7 and D8:

One day of 'in-room' practice

One day of exercises in the field - 'true-to-life' disaster simulation

3. Training seminars (9 h)

Three topical seminars.

Registration fee

- 700# : doctors

- 500# : nurses

- 400# : others

- 50# : "SMA", "SMU" and "TPPSU"

- Free : military