

LL.M. IN COMPETITION LAW AND ECONOMICS

LIFELONG LEARNING PROGRAMME

INTERUNIVERSITY CERTIFICATE IN COMPETITION LAW

PROGRAMME - 32 CREDITS

The programme is entirely taught in English and divided into 10 modules and 4 clinical seminars. With 15 hours for each module and with 3.5 hours for each clinical seminar, the programme seeks to offer the strongest possible training in the various disciplines of competition policy. Most modules are taught by both a lawyer and an economist in order to convey the multidisciplinary content of competition policy. Students who pass all the modules will be awarded an "Interuniversity certificate" and 32 credits.

FOREWORD

Amidst growing uncertainty in some parts of the European Union, the Brussels School of Competition (BSC) is cementing its clout as one of the best LL.Ms in competition law and economics on the EU educational market.

The BSC's LL.M. programme has now been certified by the University of Liège and Saint-Louis University in Brussels for the 2016-17 academic year. Upon successful completion of the programme students are awarded 32 European credits.

With more than 400 alumni to date and an excellent job placement record, the BSC is committed to pursuing its ambition to offer the best competition law LL.M. programme in Europe. We offer proximity to the field, with faculty members drawn from DG COMP, major law firms and international economic consultancies. Considerable emphasis is placed on training in economic theory - a must for any modern practitioner.

Our flexible programme is compatible with standard working schedules, allowing you to immediately apply coursework in practice and to deepen or update your competition law knowledge without taking a career break.

These are probably some of the reasons why the BSC was recognised as one of the Top LL.M. Programmes for Competition Law in LL.M GUIDE's recently published Top 10 Lists.

AMBITION OF THE PROGRAMME

The programme in Competition Law and Economics has been designed to meet the needs of companies and their counsels, who have to cope with increasingly complex competition rules and the unprecedented economic risks arising from the enforcement of those rules.

THE PROGRAMME HAS 5 UNIQUE DEFINING FEATURES

- 1 — It offers practical training, thanks to an experienced contingent of competition lawyers, economic consultants, and senior officials
- 2 — It provides high-level lectures taught by outstanding academics
- 3 — It embraces a modern approach to training, fully reflecting the interdisciplinary nature (law and economics) of competition policy
- 4 — It proposes a flexible training programme compatible with the requirements of professional practice
- 5 — It gives its students opportunities to socialise and meet fellow competition professionals on a regular basis

AND HAS 2 MAIN OBJECTIVES

- 1 — To prepare fresh graduates for entry in the demanding competition market
- 2 — To provide an upgrade for established competition experts on contemporary developments in law, economics and policy

PARTICIPANTS' PROFILE

- _ Business lawyers and economic consultants (junior and senior) seeking to expand, improve or refresh their knowledge of competition law and economics.
- _ Companies, not only in-house lawyers, but also managers, executives and public affairs experts who come across competition issues in their daily business activities.
- _ Civil servants from competition agencies, sectoral regulators, public administrations and state-owned companies, who regularly have to deal with situations involving competition law.
- _ Young graduates in law or economics who seek to add another string to their bow.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS & HOW TO APPLY?

* FEES INCLUDE THE PROGRAMME MODULES, CATERING AND COURSE MATERIALS ONLY.

EDUCATION

All applicants must hold a Master degree in law, in economics or in management science. Alternatively, applicants may hold a Master in another field and demonstrate sufficient legal expertise (e.g., professional experience or additional training in law). The Brussels School of Competition will ask participants to provide proof of their academic qualifications.

LANGUAGE SKILLS

A working knowledge of English is required (Council of Europe, Independent User, scale B2).

VISA REQUIREMENTS

Participants must hold a valid visa throughout the entire period they attend the programme at the Brussels School of Competition. Non-EU foreign students may have to provide a copy of their visa during the application process. Relevant information may be found on the website of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs:

http://diplomatie.belgium.be/en/services/travel_to_belgium/studying_in_belgium.

FEES

The tuition fee is €6,500 * for the entire course (10 modules + 4 clinical seminars).

The fee for a single module is €700. The fee for each clinical seminar is €250.

Students interested in spreading their attendance over 2 years should mention it at the beginning of the application process. The Board may then allow the programme to be spread over a maximum of two years. Students who want to spread the programme over two years will be requested to pay a €500 fee per additional year. This fee covers administrative costs.

REGISTRATION

LL.M. programme applicants must submit their application no later than September 14, 2018. The registration form can be downloaded directly from the Brussels School of Competition website:

www.bsc.brussels/interuniversity-certificate-in-competition-law

As a rule, tuition fees must be paid in full prior to the start of the programme or chosen module/seminar. Upon receipt of payment, the student's BSC account will be activated and registration will be complete.

The programme is geared towards the requirements of working professionals. Participants may decide to follow only part of the programme, opting for a limited range of modules/clinicals which correspond to their main areas of interest.

Students attending the programme, or part of it, are entitled to continuing professional development (CPD) points from the relevant authorities.

ORGANISATION

TIMETABLE

The interuniversity certificate in competition law covers a full academic year, starting on 21 September 2018 and ending on 14 June 2019. The course is held on Friday afternoons on the premises of the FEB. A lunch is provided at 12.30 p.m. prior to the beginning of each class at 1.00 p.m. The programme is divided into 10 modules and 4 clinical seminars. Each module takes place over a period of three weeks, with three weekly lectures on Friday afternoons from 12.30 p.m. to 6.00 p.m. In addition to the modules, the clinical seminars will be held on two consecutive Fridays, lasting 3.5 hours each, in the morning (from 9.00 a.m. to 12.30 p.m.) and afternoon (from 1.30 p.m. to 5.00 p.m.).

ASSESSMENT

In order to obtain the certificate in competition law, students must:

- A. Enrol for the full programme (10 modules + 4 clinical seminars)
- B. Pass the 10 exams and get a mark of at least 10/20 for each module
- C. Obtain a mark of at least 10/20 on their dissertation

1 _ Assessment of individual modules

Students will be assessed at the end of each module via an individual 'take-home exam' (e.g. case studies, multiple choice questionnaire, etc.) to be returned two weeks later. The exam is usually available a few days after the end of the module. Clinical seminars are not formally assessed.

2 _ Dissertation

As part of the certificate, each student must write a short dissertation of 25-30 pages. The topic of the dissertation may be related to the student's day-to-day professional practice. Where possible, dissertations must cover both the legal and economic aspects of competition law.

Dissertation topics must be submitted to, and approved by, the BSC Board in consultation with the team of professors in charge of the relevant module. If two or more similar topics are submitted for approval, topics will be attributed on a first come, first served basis.

3 _ An Interuniversity Certificate in Competition Law

Participants who complete the full programme and pass the assessment examination will receive an Interuniversity Certificate in Competition Law, as well as 32 credits (see European recognition and the decree of 7 November 2013 defining the higher education landscape and the academic organisation of studies). The certificate is personally significant for the participant's training and education plan, and the credits can be used when pursuing academic training in Europe (provided the credits are accepted by the programme for which the participant would subsequently like to enrol).

TEACHING MATERIALS

Students will receive an online documentation pack comprising an outline of their course and relevant regulations, case law and academic literature for each module. Students may be given reading assignments. Students will have access to an online teaching platform where they can upload the exam and consult the materials before and during each course.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT US?

'The BSC was a great surprise! After my first session, I realised that the course would be a pleasant challenge. Although these sessions are held just once a week, the quality of the lectures and the amount of reading material provided does not make you feel that you are missing anything. In addition, the BSC's facilities are excellent; the student platform is a very useful tool; the faculty has a great team of professors; and the different cultures and types of students made for a very interesting atmosphere. I really appreciated this rich and valuable experience.'

● MICHELLE POTENGY DE MELLO SulAmérica, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

'A diverse team of excellent professors, passionate BSC staff members and students from various backgrounds all contributed to a unique BSC experience!'

● STEVEN WITTEMANS KBC Group

'The BSC course was more like a conversation than a lecture. It gave me the chance to compare my experiences at the European Commission with a whole range of other viewpoints, and to understand better what competition policy is all about.'

● GEOFFREY MAMDANI

'Being part of the BSC dream was a great experience. The modules are well structured and the list of professors is most impressive. What makes the BSC's LL.M stands out is the fact that every module is covered from the viewpoints of both a lawyer and an economist. I wholeheartedly recommend the programme.'

● AKSHAY NANDA P&A Law Offices, India

'Generally an excellent course, and good value for money. I intended to attend just a couple of modules, but they were so useful I ended up doing the full LL.M..'

● CLAIRE SIMPSON Euroclear

'I really enjoyed the strong practitioner- focus on current day antitrust law and economics. Seminars are well-designed, reflecting dynamic trends in competition.'

● SUJIN CHAN-ALLEN Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton
