

Block view of the study programme

Or Th Pr Au Cr

Block 1

This programme is organised in partnership with UCL.

Compulsory courses

DCER0132-1 PlanCom - Sébastien BRUNET, Anne DASSY, Catherine DELCOURT, TA 30,5 - [+] 10
Aurore FRANÇOIS, Pierre OZER, Aline THIRY, Patrice VANBRABANT - [11,5h
SEM]

1) Theory and concepts of crisis management and emergency planning

- Introduction to key concepts
- Roles and responsibilities of the official in charge of emergency planning (institutional round table)
- Philosophy of planning
- Theory and methodology of emergency plans
- Exercises: methodological components
- Risk workshops (natural hazards)
- Risk workshops (crisis management and cultural heritage)

2) Crisis management

- Crisis management: civil and criminal liability
- Process-based approach to crisis management
- Crisis management: institutional and legal aspects
- Media and crisis communication
- Stakeholders: Discipline 4 - civil protection
- Feedback and lessons learned
- Current issues beyond the framework

3) Stakeholders

- Stakeholders: Discipline 1
- Stakeholders: Discipline 2
- Stakeholders: Discipline 3
- Stakeholders: Discipline 4 - Defence
- Multidisciplinary operational system
- Walloon Region - CORTEX (institutional round table)
- Institutional competences
- The Public Prosecutor's Office
- Tools: Paragon - Be Alert - 1771
- The role of the insurer
- Operation of the 112 emergency call centre

4) Planning and prevention

- Evacuation
- Preventive measures during events
- Emergency planning in private companies

5) Exercise

6) Final assignment

7) Participation in the end-of-year platform

- Role-playing scenario
- Stakeholders: Discipline 5
- Conclusions and final assignment
- Debriefing concepts